Blood Oath Required.

A blood oath, not only to join the tobacco growers' association, but to follow the commands of Capt. Joe Bell of the Eastern division of the Calloway organization, was what was required of Willie Dyer, Moses Thornton and other citizens, according to their evidence, given in the examining trial of Ed. Thompson, Jake Ellis and Bob Duncan at Murray, Ky., Saturday.

Clarence Whitlock, who is night operator for the Planters' telephone office at Potterstown, swore that he had been taken away from the office and made to take an oath to join the night riders. This was on the night before Frank Mardis was whipped. Thornton, Dyer and Whitlock also declared that they recognized Ellis, Duncan and Thompson.

The trials of the accused were attended by an immense crowd and were not without their dramatic incidents. During the course of Moses Thornton's evidence in which he referred to the lieutenant, he was asked what he meant.

There is the man I refer to," said Mr. Thornton, rising to his feet and pointing his finger at Jake Ellis. "He is the man in charge of a squad of the twenty-five men who visited me." Mr. Thornton said that he recognized Ed. Thompson, Jake Ellis and Bob Duncan.

Dyer testified that they came to his house and made him take the oath and told him that he was too weak a man to whip, but made him trot and do other antics for their amusement.

Ellis, Thompson and Duncan were held to the grand jury and bond was fixed, at $2,000 each, which they could not give and were returned to jail.

The Thrice-a-Week World.

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-a-week edition of the New York World will tell you every step and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of the news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and in thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Bourbon News together for one year for $2.50. The regular subscription prices of the two papers is $3.00.

Want New Court House.

The Fiscal Court of Shelby county has decided to submit to the voters of the county a proposition to issue $100,000 of bonds for the erection of a new court house to replace the present building, which has been in use many years. The Fiscal Court also appropriated $25,000 toward the repair of the roads.

Hughes Eliminated.

Washington politicians are of the opinion that the result of the Republican primaries of New York practically eliminates Hughes from the race for the nomination for President. The lack of enthusiasm for the Governor in his own State will have a bad effect elsewhere.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at Oberdorfer's drug store. Trial bottle free, ap

Probable Candidate For Governor

John B. Chenault, of Richmond, formerly State Insurance Commissioner, while in Lexington Saturday, announced that the Hon. Jere Sullivan, Madison county's Representative in the Legislature, would be a candidate for delegate from the State-at-large to the Democratic National Convention at Denver, and later would probably run for Governor. Said Mr. Chenault:

"Madison county Democrats feel that there is nothing too good within the gift of the party in the State for Jere Sullivan. He has earned the recognition of Democracy as a big man mentally and politically, but he is too modest and retiring to personally push his claims. He was for the gold standard in 1896, but, like hundreds of other good Democrats who supported Palmer and Buckner, he is now heartily for Bryan. Madison county will have something to say about his claims for the Democratic nomination for Governor."

A Startling Confession.

The most startling discovery yet unearthed by County Judge Wells in connection with his efforts to run down the men implicated in the raids on the citizens of Calloway county came Wednesday in the form of an affidavit and confession by another of the alleged gang of "night riders," which will make the citizens of Murray shudder when it becomes publicly known. While Judge Wells refused to allow the name of the man making the confession to be made known until after the others implicated by him have been placed under arrest, he permitted the affidavit to be read for publication, and it reveals a state of affairs existing in that and adjoining counties which few people outside of the "night rider" order would possibly imagine existed.

The most important bit of evidence contained in the signed confession tells of the raid planned on the town of Murray, and which was to have been carried out on Monday night, March 28 last, and had it not been for the activity displayed by Judge Wells just before that time it is likely that most of the Calloway county capital would now be in ashes.
